General approach

1. This document provides clarification in relation to the permissibility of you completing and signing, as the legal representative, Part 31 of form CRM 14, "Application for Legal Aid in Criminal Proceedings" (formerly form "CDS 14"), issued by the Legal Aid Authority ("LAA").

2. The Legal Services Commission, the predecessor to the LAA confirmed, in 2006, that barristers could sign form CDS 14 and it was always their intention that they should be able to, as agents of the solicitor. The Ethics Committee has considered the replacement form CRM 14 and the guidance notes thereto. These are available on the Ministry of Justice's website via the following link:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/criminal-legal-aid-application-forms>

3. The form (and the equivalent e-form) requires the applicant's legal representative to complete and sign Part 31, and declare that you 'have been instructed to provide representation by a firm which holds a contract issued by the Legal Aid Agency (LAA); or a solicitor employed by the LAA in the Public Defender Service who is authorised to provide representation'; and to provide the relevant

LAA account number. It does not require you to verify or attest to the accuracy of the information submitted.

4. The Ethics Committee considers that it is permissible under the BSB Handbook for barristers to complete and sign Part 31 form CRM 14.
